A TRADITION BEGINS WITH THE OFFICIAL DEDICATION OF AVHS

Sunday, February 13, 1977, marked the official dedication of AVHS. Attending the festivities were Senator Wendell Anderson, Newsweek Editor Don Holt, and building architect Richard Hammel. The invocation was provided by Rev. W. Ross Foley, Faith Covenant Church. Highlighting the event was Donna DiMenna's dedication speech.

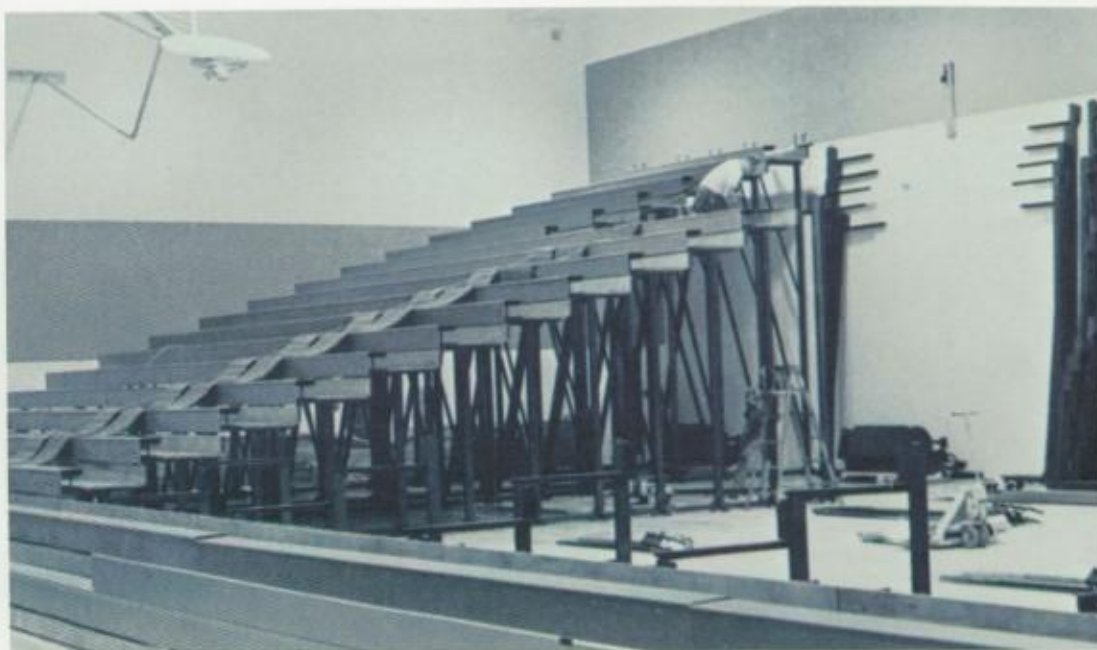

CLOCKWISE FROM UPPER RIGHT: Donna DiMenna gives a student's view; Mr. Don Holt of NEWSWEEK provides the dedication address; a spectator's view of the dignitaries; Mr. Boesen welcomes Senator Wendell Anderson to the festivities; the National Anthem by Terry Berkeley.

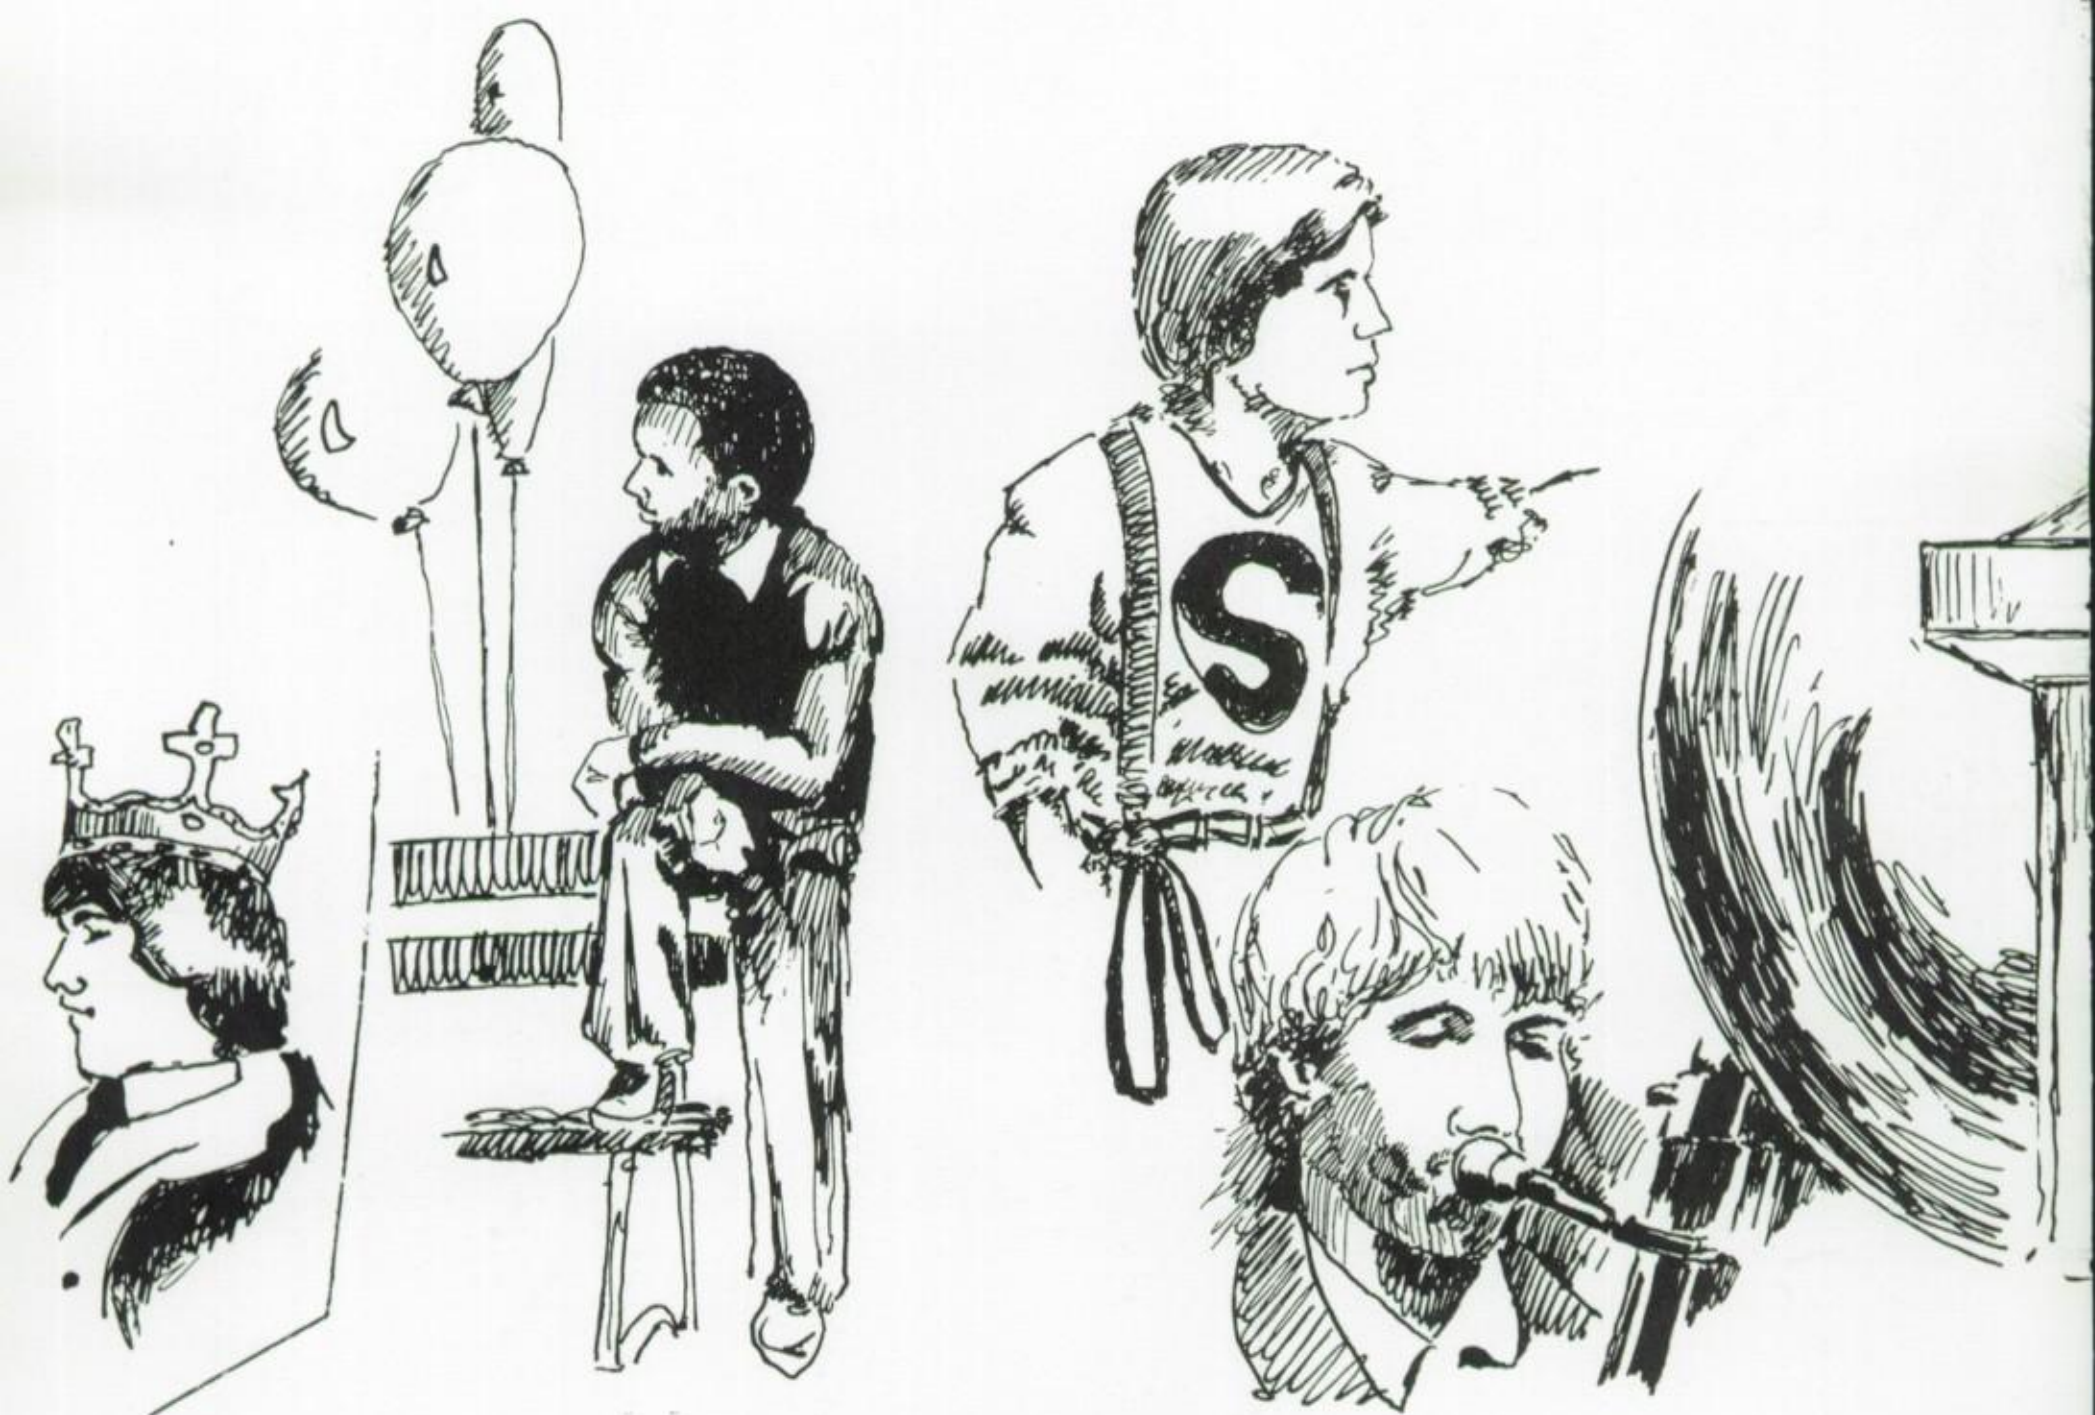

"... EDUCATION IS NURTURE FOR MIND,
BODY, AND SOUL ...
BRINGING DISCIPLINE, STRENGTH, AND DIRECTION INTO THE LIVES OF AMERICAN YOUTH ..."

CLOCKWISE FROM UPPER LEFT: up the down staircase; no
stairway to heaven; sun provides the guiding light to literature;
many obstacles to dribble around; right to relax rates an "A".

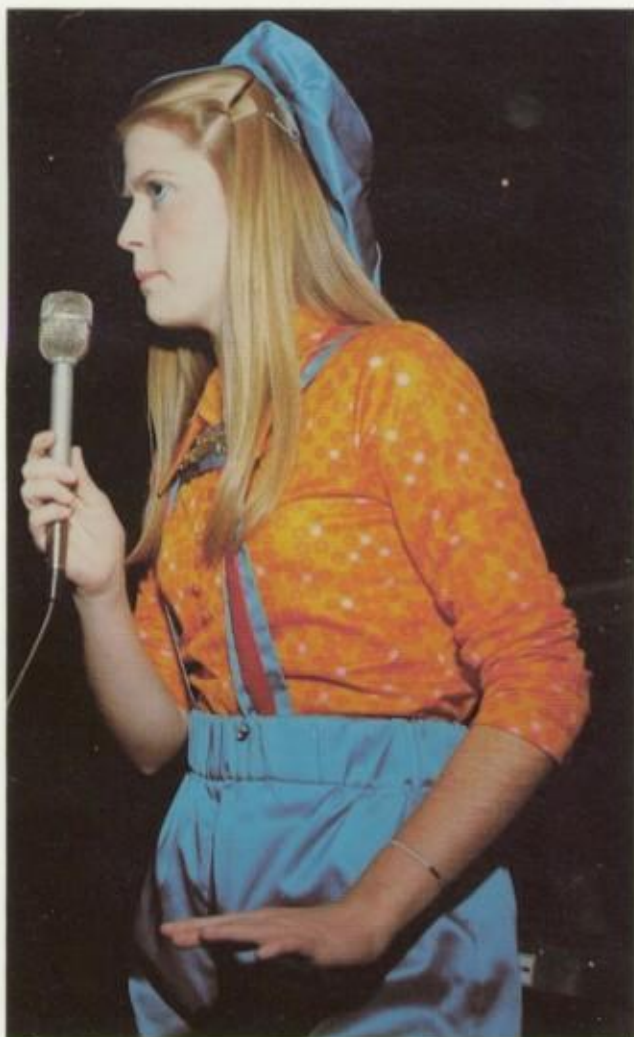

THE THEATRE- A STAGE FOR ALL SEASONS

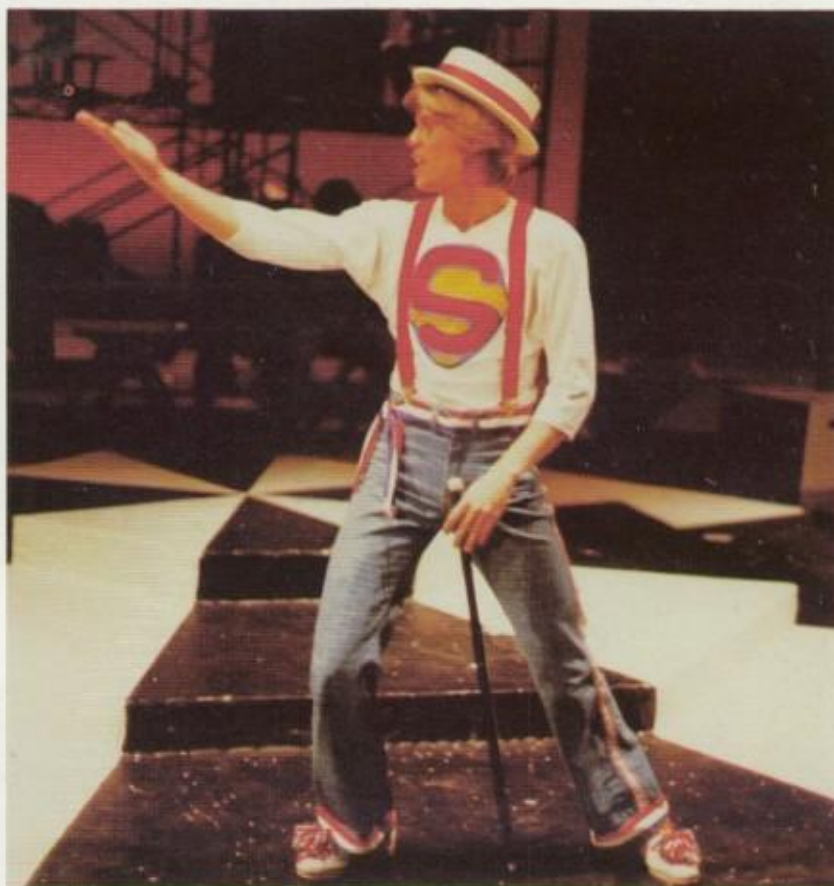

Potentially the hub of AVHS activity, the theatre lends itself to virtually all academic demands as well as many co-curricular functions. Intended basically as a center for performing arts, the area is also a "lab" area for industrial arts, a movie theatre for such presentation as "Romeo and Juliet", and an arena for the Gold Country Power Weightlifting Meet. As a thrust stage it allows for maximum flexibility while still maintaining a theatrical atmosphere. The theatre undoubtedly will evolve as one of the most important facets of the school.

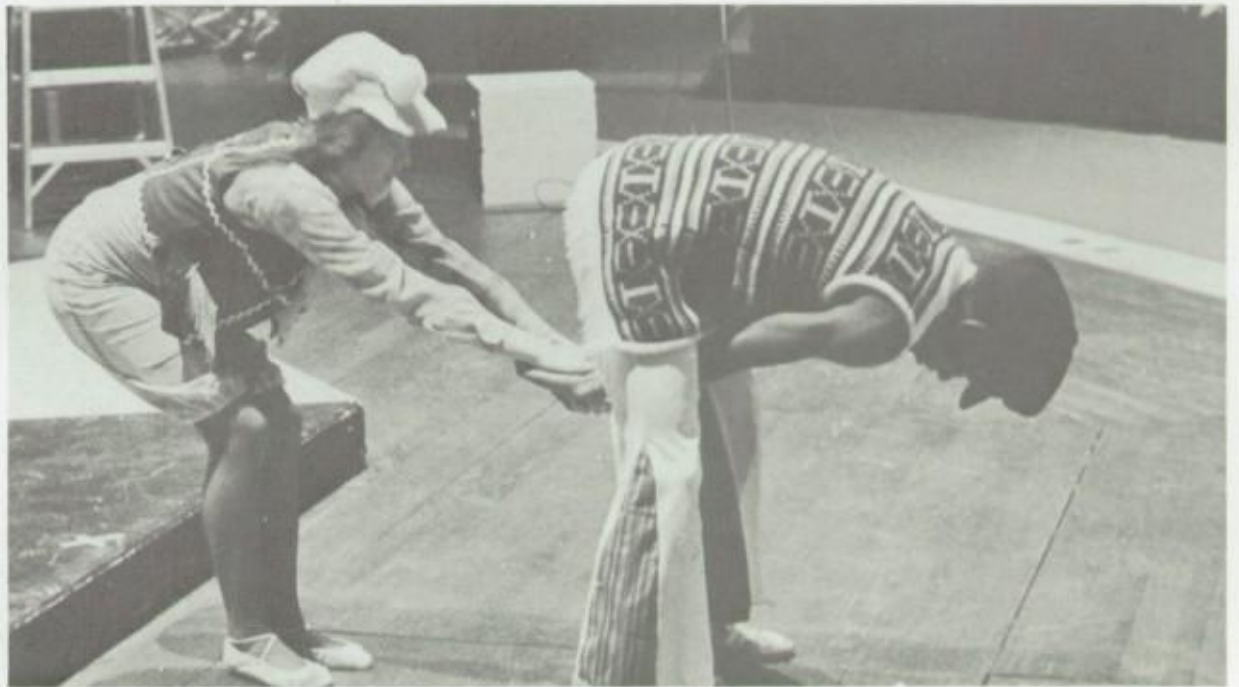

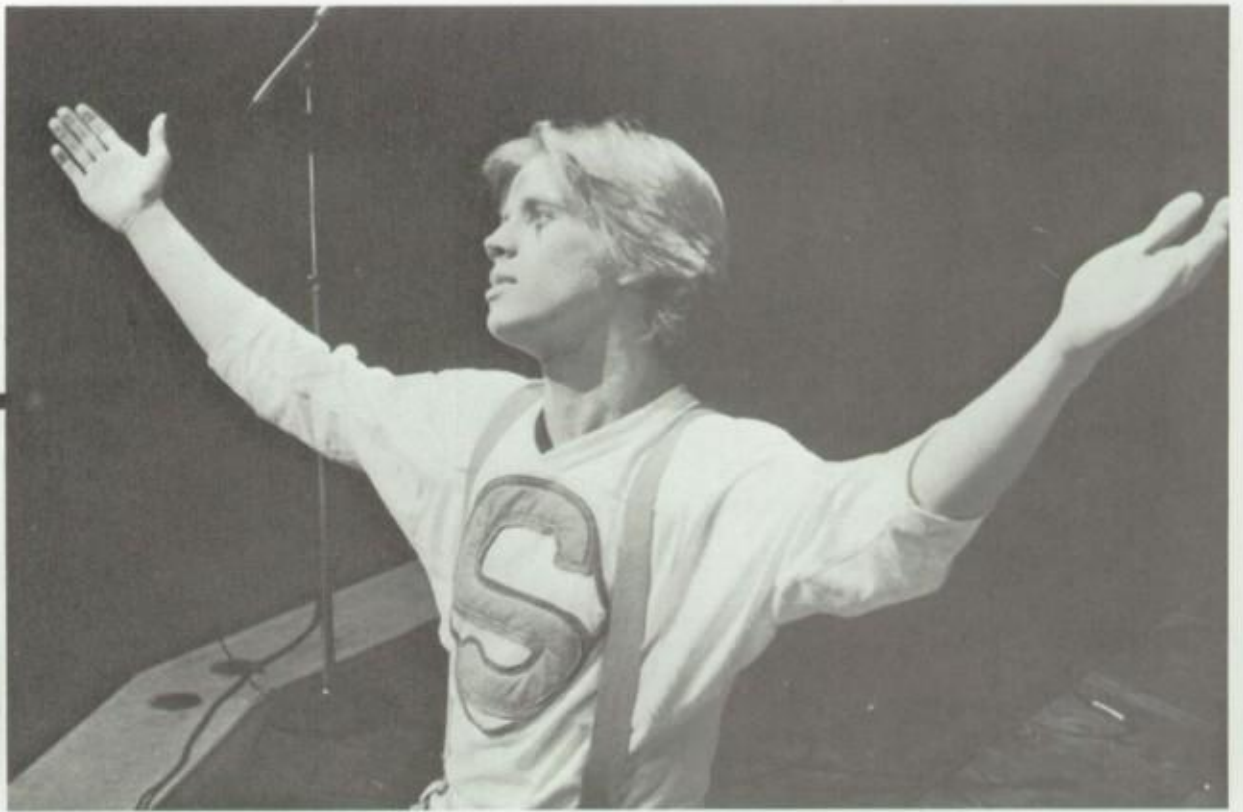

GODSPELL- INAUGURAL PLAY FOR AVHS

GODSPELL CAPTURES AUDIENCES HEARTS

"Godspell" exuberantly depicts the gospel according to St. Matthew by allowing the actors to relate the story in puppetry, pantomime, charades, vaudeville, and slapstick. Directed by Dennis Swanson, the musical became the first production of AVHS. The case was led by Randy Mitchell as Jesus and Terry Berkeley as John the Baptist/Judas. The chorus includes Lynette Jones, Karen Lien, Cindy Froelich, Peter Lagen, Julie Boisvert, Carolyn Decker, Doug Olson, Michael Buford, Felipe' Ramirez, Beth Fisher, Michelle Lindholm, Mona Anderson, Eda Lyons, and Pete Hunsinger.

Heeeeeey! Dig the greasy hair, bubble gum, bobby socks, saddle shoes, poodle skirts and leather jackets. All were part of the scene as 50's day hit AVHS. The day was capped by a neato pep assembly featuring Big Jim Smola and the AVaires and friends.

50'S DAY — NIFTY FIFTIES

COUNTERCLOCKWISE: Heeeeeey! Hangin' around with the gang, Big Jim emcees the pep fest. The AVaires and friends rock around the clock. Is this how they did it in the 50's?.

HOMECOMING '76

SHINE ON HARVEST MOON

CLOCKWISE: Sue Horvat and Tony Payette, are the first Homecoming Queen and King of AVHS. Homecoming candidates: Julie Tucker, Donna Tucker, Donna DiMenna, Lori Wettenkamp, Kim Radtke, Tony Payette, Greg Wachter, Don Westerhausen, Paul Schultz, Scott Olson, Jr. Pages: Terri Mooney, Mike Johnson. Homecoming candidates: Lori Young, Sue Horvat, Jean Witthoft, Nancy Ness, Patty Ehaney, Tony Shackman, Gerald Williams, Dan Sheedy, Al Holter, Bruce Trom, Jr. Pages: Becky Boyd, Jeff Herman.

Homecoming 1976 could be known as the Homecoming that really wasn't, because there were no alumni to return home. But that didn't put a damper on the festivities. The coronation of our first King and Queen, Tony and Sue, was a great success, after which, the sophomore bonfire roared and the snake dance wriggled through Apple Valley. The classes still battled it out for the title of the powder puff football champions. All classes were enthusiastic in their participation in the pepfests, the skits, wall murals, the races, and the special days. To top off the week of fun, the Eagles really turned the Panthers white with fright as they flew to a Homecoming Victory. The week was beautifully concluded as the Harvest Moon shined over AVHS. All this contributed should be to the success and fun of the first Homecoming.

Getting fired up for a hot week. Go, go, get um, get um. Watch out Panthers, the Eagles are coming. Painting windows is a lost tradition. The start of Homecoming victory. Powder puff football at its best.

THE DIARY OF ANNE FRANK

CLOCKWISE FROM UPPER RIGHT: Part of the strong Jewish faith and tradition is the celebration of Hanukkah. Mrs. Frank quickly comes between a flirty Mrs. Von Daan and her husband. Studying is part of the routine in the "secret annex" as Peter gets some help from Mr. Frank with his math. The mischievous side of Anne. Mr. Dusset, an old-fashioned man, is the Frank's guest in their hiding place.

The Diary of Anne Frank is a rich and meaningful drama about a 13 year-old, girl and her Jewish family who go into hiding to escape the terror of the Nazis. The actors reproduced the tensions and the traumas of the Frank family as they struggled to survive the Third Reich, very professionally. However, everything did not go as smoothly as it looked. Chasing cats, backstage, became a familiar past time of the cast, as Mouschi decided to get some of the audience's attention and applause. Luckily he didn't get too far. Excluding this minor problem, the performances went off exceptionally well and the actors are to be congratulated.

COUNTER CLOCKWISE: Cast (L TO R)- Shelly Keeton as Anne Frank, Pete Hunsinger as Peter Van Daan, Greg Wachter as Mr. Van Daan, Cindy Froelich as Mrs. Van Daan, Dennis Dahlquist as Mr. Dussel, Sue Lehmann as Miep Gies, Justin Baldwin as Mr. Krahler, Jeff Evenson as Mr. Frank, Laura Lach as Mrs. Frank, Sue Lach as Margot Frank and student director, Karen Johnson and director Ms. Reikowski. The Franks get settled in their hiding place. Effective set designed by Bob Knodt. Lady-like Anne loathes the way her mother treats her like a child.

SNOW FEST

THE WONDERFUL WORLD OF DISNEY

"The Wonderful World of Disney" was the theme of AVHS's first Snow Fest. The day was filled with crazy happenings like Disney characters roaming around, pie throwing, human pyramid, muscle-bulging tug-o-wars, and the grueling marathon race. King Jeff Swanson and Queen Michele Johnson reigned over this fun, and the perfect ending to it all, was the beautiful Snow Fest dance.

ONE ACT —

A STUDY OF A RELATION- SHIP

"Where Have All The Lightning Bugs Gone?", the One Act Play presented by Beth Fisher and Mike Buford, was the story of a young couple who meet, fall in love, and are then separated by war. It depicted their journey through life and the development of their relationship. This play wasn't like the others presented at AVHS which had elaborate sets, or color and music, but the success of this play depended on the abilities of the actors. With props such as balloons and a park bench, the actors themselves had to convey the plot of the play through their actions. The One Act Play was a great success as shown by their trip to the Sub-Regionals.

1ST ANNUAL ICE FOLLIES

What's the hardest thing about putting on an ice show? The ice! However, despite the long, enduring practices and a few falls, the AVHS ice skating team put on their first Ice Follies, "Springtime on Ice". This exuberant, colorful show of skill and talent on ice, welcomed the incoming spring. It consisted of many ice skating routines each depicting a special aspect of spring. The last was the Grand Finale with the entire team working together to finish an excellent, near-perfect ice show.

CLOCKWISE FROM UPPER RIGHT: The graceful lunge done as part of their routine in "What a lot of flowers". Terri Penner skating beautifully to "Nadia's Theme". Audrey Gondeek and Lynette Bristol skating to "Reflections." The comedy was supplied by the boy's hockey team. Debbie getting ready to skate.

SPRINGTIME ON ICE

COUNTER CLOCKWISE FROM UPPER LEFT: Light AVHS beauties portraying butterflies. Proving that practice makes perfect. A celebration was about to begin and anticipation was high. Going "Up, up, and away" to let everyone's spirit's rise.

THE SPRING PRODUCTION OF DAVID AND LISA

Laughter, heartbreak, and suspense were all part of the spring production, David and Lisa. This touching drama was the story of two mentally disturbed teen-agers who came under the understanding care and guidance of psychiatrists at Berkley school. David, the only son of wealthy parents, had a mania of being touched while Lisa, who never knew parental love, had a split personality. The two built a treasured friendship and through their relationship, they helped each other overcome their problems.

PROM — DINNER AT THE CHANHASSEN

Although every Prom is special, the First AVHS Prom was extra-special because, for the first time, it was held at the Chanhassen Dinner Theater. The evening was started with a social hour, which was followed by a delicious, filling steak or shrimp dinner. There was great entertainment provided by Julie Rentz, and speakers: Tony Payette, Sue Geving, Lori Young, and Mr. Boesen. The beautiful night continued with dancing to the music of Perception. The Grand March was announced by juniors Diane Dashow and Felipe Ramirez. It was a night that will be remembered by all.

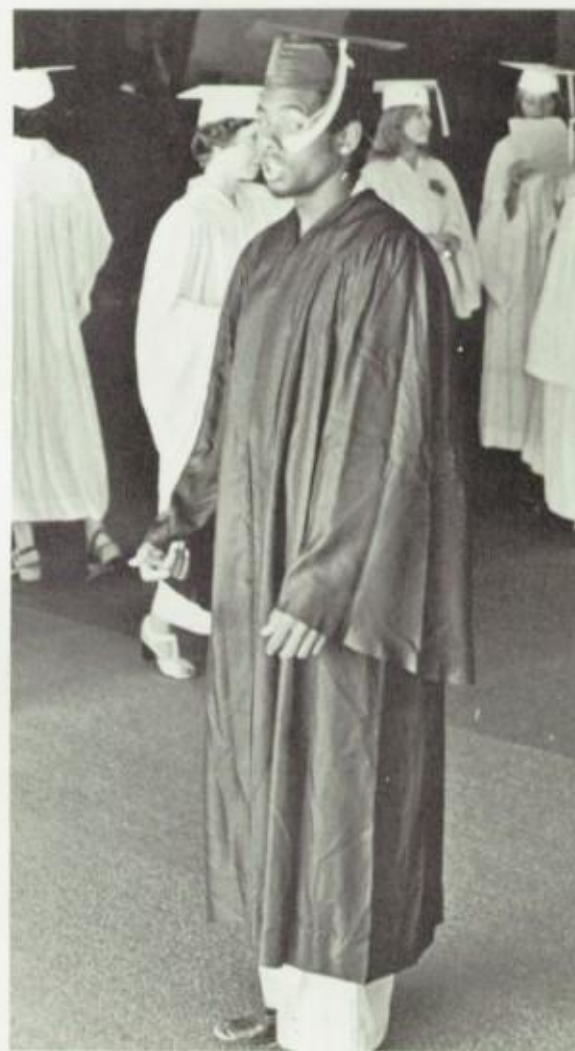

SENIOR BRUNCH — AWARDS CEREMONY

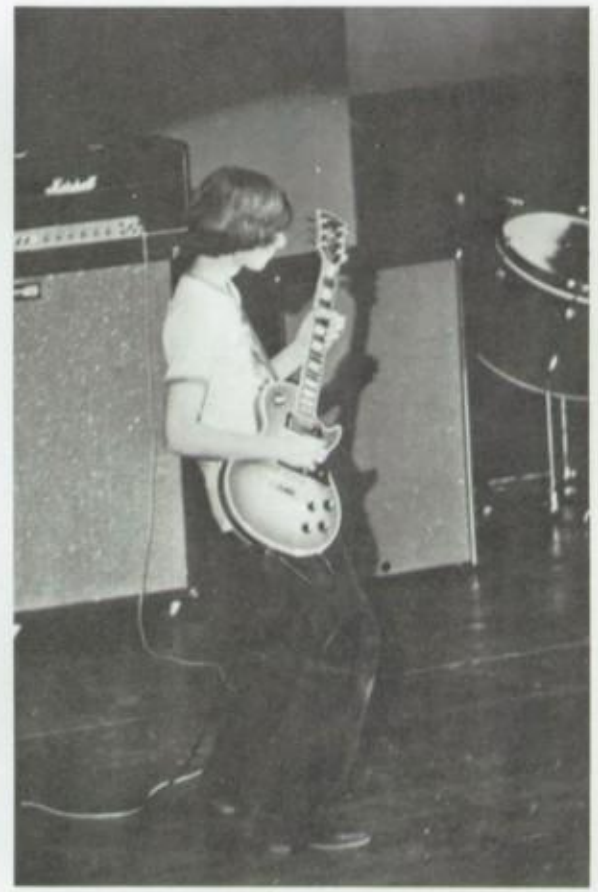

The Senior Brunch and Awards Ceremony was a day set aside to honor the seniors and for them to have some fun. The day started off with a brunch, served by the juniors, and various speeches about the first graduating class and their year as seniors. The wills and prophecies were distributed and everyone had fun reading them. Then, the seniors were honored and given their awards for their various achievement at AVHS in an Awards Ceremony in the theater. This event will be remembered by all the seniors as a very special day.

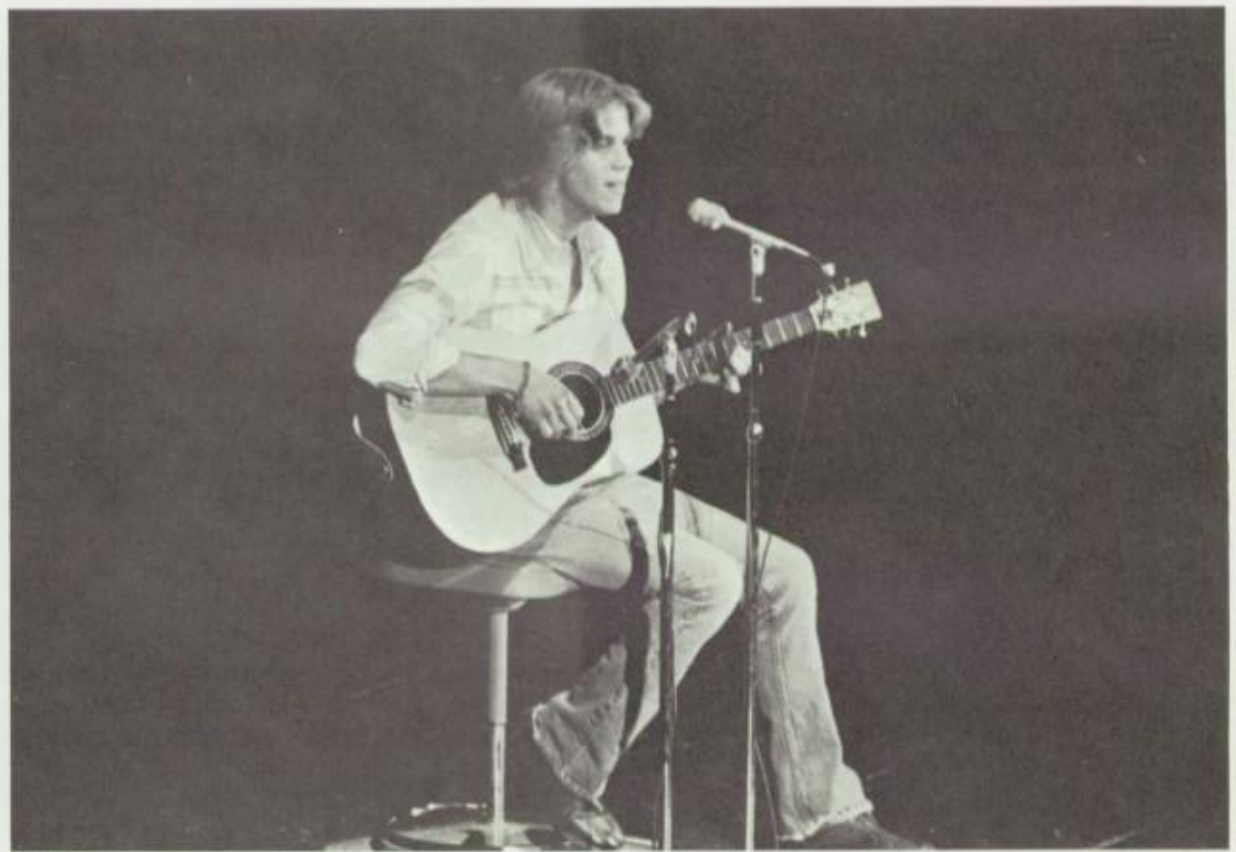

PERCEPTIONS-

THE VARIETY SHOW

"Perceptions", the first variety show, gave student a chance to show their many talents. Among these were baton twirling, co-mediennes, singers, dancers, guitar players, puppeteers, unicyclists, and a rock band. Mike Buford, the Master of Ceremonies, and these talents were put together to result in a fantastic, enjoyable show.

TOP: Mr. Fruytier works hard to organize the Variety Show. ABOVE LEFT: Felicia Jurgens showing her perceptions on a piece of Bubble gum. ABOVE RIGHT: Play that funky music, Bob. LEFT: Steve and Terri Harmonizing.

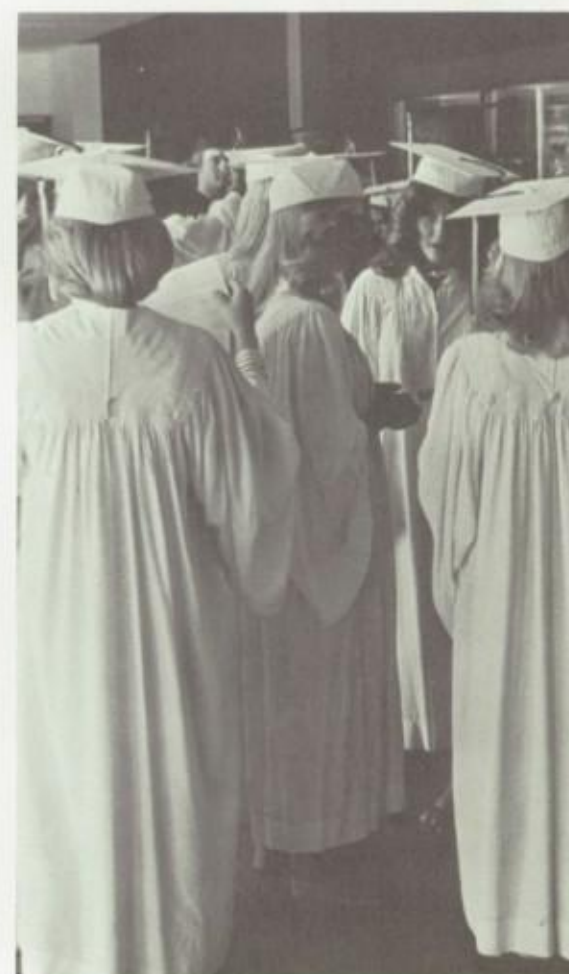

CLOCKWISE FROM UPPER LEFT: Song-writing and singing are just two of Shawn's talents. We hope you don't drop your baton, Terri. Randy sings "My Sweet Lady" and "If" to the audience. Gracefulness is displayed in a floor exercise routine by skilled gymnasts. Felipe "gets down" with the dance company "Nova".

THE GUTHERIE VISITS AVHS

This year AVHS was privileged to have the Guthrie Theater visit. Barbra Berlovitz and Dominique Serrand conducted a workshop for students in which the kids learned how to act and to convey certain feelings and messages by using actions and body positions. It was a great learning experience for all the students who participated. Then, Barbra and Dominique presented "A Party For Two" in which they portrayed the characters by the use of masks and their actions.

CLOCKWISE: Using body positions to convey a message. Barbra Berlovitz and Dominique Serrand work with their masks in preparation for "A Party For Two". Who is behind this mask? Stretch and point your toes! Inhale...Exhale...Relax.

All in all, the AVHS gymnastics team did very well during their first season.

This staying close to almost all competition could cause the optimism needed for success next year.

DEBATE — A BUILDING YEAR

Debate is a highly competitive activity where one's ability to think and perform logically under stress is put to the utmost test. Debate has the longest season of any scholastic activity with a season that lasts from September to March.

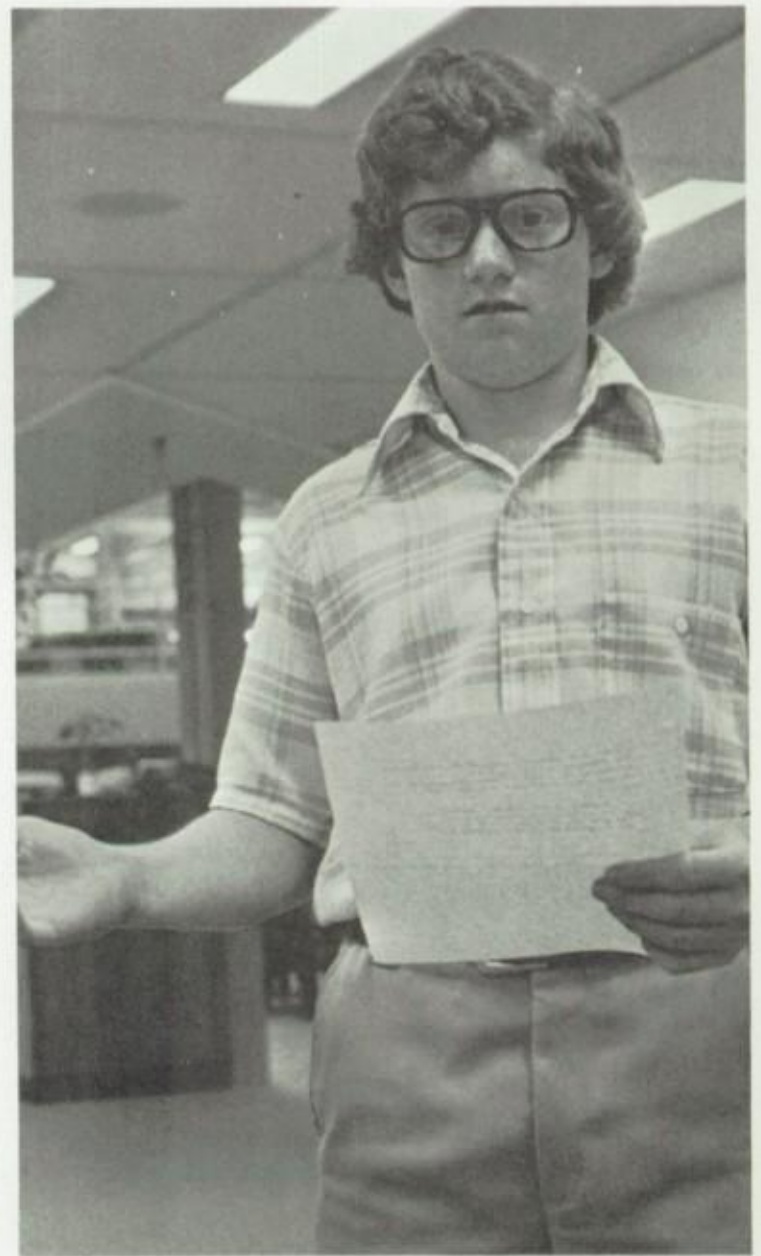

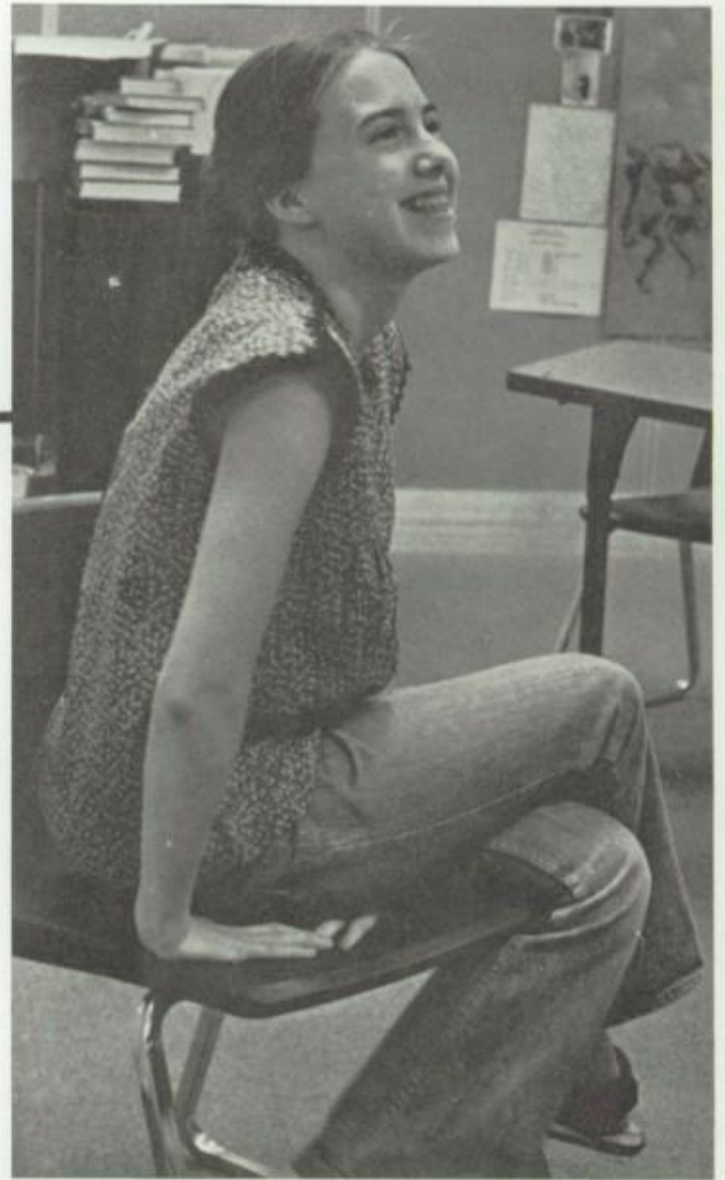

Virtually every week during that season a debater puts in up to 30 hours of work in preparation for the weekend's debates. Then on Saturday, the debater must get up early, if not earlier than on a school day to arrive at school in time to be transported to that week's debate, be it in Rosemount, Mankato, or Duluth. The longer "overnight" tournaments find the debaters eating in style, all content that they will have an intimate and thorough knowledge of this year's meets.

The AVHS Debaters were slim in numbers—but worked diligently enough throughout the year to come close to going to the state tournament. Outstanding members were Senior Bob Brown, and sophomore Dick McMasters, and Jim Kappus.

Working in conjunction with business, the girls in the class gain valuable experience. Competition on the local, state, and national level is held annually, and an AVHS junior, Ginger Nielson, advanced to national competition in Houston Texas. The class also had five regular members and one junior member entered in state competition.

CHESS — ONE OF THE MANY CHAMPS

The Chess Team was one of many conference champs that AVHS could add to its list. Mr. Hustad, after a split team and a third place finish last year at Rosemount took the conference championship. This is quite a feat for a first year school since he relied on students from the middle school and new members. The team was comprised of mainly freshmen and sophomores with a strong senior, John Viveiros

Our time has come
When dreams must end,
And reality is dawning
On us my friend.

Our time has come
To bequeth the fun
Of being young--
A new age has begun.

Our time has come
To meet the new
Remember the old,
And know you grew.

Our time has come
To gather our needs,
Pay the dues,
And sow our seeds.

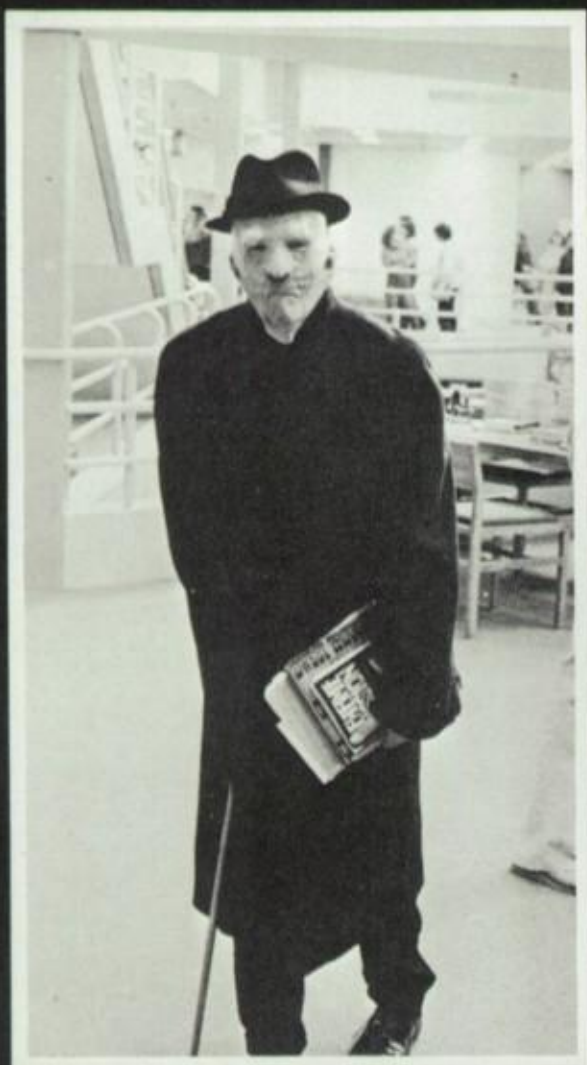

Our time has come
To say good-bye,
And leave all behind
Without a tear...or cry.

When times are down
And tomorrow seems like an eternity away,
When life is full of troubles
And it seems there's no way out...

Just turn to the ones who love
you,
For they will supply you with hope,
Turn to those who care about
you,
For they will give you faith.

For when you are loved
As you are,
And people care about you
As they do,
Think of tomorrow, it's a Brighter future of a life of happiness.

ADMINISTRATION —

BUILDING THE CHARACTER OF A NEW SCHOOL

Behind the activity, hubbub, and sometimes uproar of high school life are the administrators of the school. Basically, these people design the philosophy by which the school functions and supervise the activity of the building. At AVHS the concept of involvement begins with the students, and although often unseen, ends in the administrative office.

Lynne Anderson
Assistant Principal for Applied and Performing Arts

James F. Boesen
Principal

Dean Soutor
Assistant Principal for Student Services

Gary Embretson
Assistant Principal for Athletics

Jon Kerola
Administrative Assistant

An integral part of the functioning of a school is the work that secretaries do. Without them the activity of the school would slow to a crawl. And one thing that is nice about our secretaries is that they are always so friendly.

Student Services Secretaries: Jan Skapyak, Marilyn Hoffman, Lori Pederson.

Administrative Secretaries: Judy Leonard, Jean Schwendemann, Dee Johnson, Nanci Haugen, Kay Doehling.

FACULTY —

A STUDENT'S LINK TO THE PAST, PRESENT, AND FUTURE

AVHS is fortunate to have an excellent faculty. Many Teachers are also superb athletic coaches, drama directors, and speech advisors. Administration and counseling provide every service for students and other faculty members. A high school can not succeed without a dedicated faculty, and AVHS has that attribute.
